

President's Letter Evelyn McCoy

Dear OKC RW Members,

This is the month of love. We see lots of flowers and more RED. Our state was the Reddest of the Red in last election. With your help we will continue to be known as the Red State.

February 6 is our general meeting and we are honored to have General Rita Aragon as our speaker (details on this page). Bring a new member and be entered into our 1+1 contest.

February 6 is Precinct meeting for Oklahoma County (details on Page 5). You should have received your new voter card in the mail. Be sure to check the voting site and your precinct number as some have changed.

February 14, Senate district 45 will have the opportunity to help Jason Reese get elected. This district has been Democrat and liberal for many years. We will be donating to his campaign.

We have reviewed a grant application from Oklahoma Federation of Young Republicans, with recommendation and vote of Board we will award at our March meeting. This grant will help them with voter registration plans and grass root activity.

Our Caring for America program is off to a great start. We collected $88.02 at our January meeting for a total of

MOTION: Passed
To approve the 2012 Budget

Copies of the Budget are available for members. If you are unable to attend copies are available upon request.

$264.02 for HUGS. Teen Mom's at Emerson were very excited with your donations. We filled trunk of my car. We will have a Caring for America project once a quarter and Change for HUGS every meeting.

Literacy program has discontinued the essay program. We will continue to provide books for a school library. Also, we are starting a dictionary project. This project will adopt a school and provide a dictionary to each third grader. This is a national project sponsored by NFRW and The Dictionary Project. With September being Literacy month, we are planning to introduce and award at our Registration Tea. Stay tuned for more information.

The Boutique is your source for elephants and patriotic accessories. This is our ongoing fund raiser. Please support the Boutique. We will continue the raffle at each meeting. Buy your tickets.

To our communication tools (telephone, email, newsletter) we have added the following tools. Look for us on Face Book (OKC Republican Women) and web page www.republicanwomen-okc.org.

If, you have failed to pay your dues, please send to Sandy Birdsong by January 30 in order to be included in the yearbook. Dues are $25.00 and Sustaining Member is $50.
